Property Details

An impressive five-bedroom, two-bathroom Victorian home with a landscaped garden and additional outside space. Thoughtfully extended and architecturally designed, this elegant property blends period charm with modern luxury. Restored and new features combine to enhance the home's character. The kitchen, newly fitted in 2025, and dining area offer a contemporary living space, perfect for families and entertaining. The stylish living room features bi-fold doors opening on to a tranquil garden, complete with a hardwood deck and stunning flower beds. A downstairs WC and utility cellar complete the ground floor. The principal suite is a serene retreat, boasting skylights, custom wardrobes, and a luxurious en-suite with a walk-in shower. A striking staircase leads to a study/bedroom with bespoke storage and access to a green roof with lighting and irrigation. The other three bedrooms are well-appointed, including a former principal suite, currently a playroom. The stylish family bathroom offers a full-size bath, walk-in shower, and ample storage, completing this exceptional home designed for comfort and elegance.
