Property Details

Set within a grand Victorian townhouse, this elegant two bedroom apartment spans the raised ground floor, boasting soaring ceilings, period charm, and an abundance of natural light. The impressive reception room is a showstopper, featuring a stunning bay window with original wooden shutters, flooding the space with light. Wooden flooring, a decorative fireplace, and bespoke shelving create a stylish yet cosy atmosphere, with ample room for dining and entertaining. The semi open-plan kitchen seamlessly adjoins, blending modern and traditional design with shaker-style cabinetry, wooden worktops, metro tiling, and a butler sink. Both double bedrooms are peacefully positioned at the rear, offering tranquil leafy views. The principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, while both are neutrally decorated with plush carpeting. A sleek bathroom with a walk-in rain shower and quality fittings completes the home. A welcoming hallway with statement wallpaper and smart storage solutions enhances the first impression, ensuring a practical yet stylish entrance to this charming period property. The exterior of the property has also been recently renovated.
