Property Details

This spacious and well-presented ground floor studio flat is set within an attractive period conversion and offered in lovely decorative order throughout. Ideally situated on the desirable Culverley Road, the property is just minutes from both Catford and Catford Bridge overground stations, offering exceptional connectivity across London. The accommodation features a modern, fully fitted kitchen with generous worktop space, and a bright, airy studio area large enough to comfortably zone into living, dining, and sleeping areas. A sleek, contemporary bathroom completes this charming flat. You'll also have benefits of a shared garden.

The property is ideally located for easy access to Catford station and Catford Bridge station. Catford station provides services to Blackfriars, St Pancras, Bromley South, Kentish Town (London Victoria on Sundays) and Sevenoaks. Also Catford Bridge station provides services to London Charing Cross, London Cannon Street, London Bridge, Waterloo East and Hayes. The surrounding area is delightful, an abundance of amenities are on offer with local cafes, bars, restaurants and the larger shops of Catford all easily reachable in minutes.
