A flexible family home with 3/4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms 2/3 reception rooms and ample off road parking.

Ground Floor
A spacious entrance hall has stairs rising to the first floor landing and doors opening to the ground floor accommodation. To the right hand side a door opens to a flexible room which has been used as a fourth bedroom previously which is well served by having a ground floor shower room in addition to the first floor bathroom. To the left hand side a door opens to a dedicated living room which over-looks the front of the property and flows directly to the dining room which has been further complimented by the addition of a garden room which has large double doors overlooking the extensive rear garden and allows light to flood this space. The kitchen/breakfast room is accessed from both the dining room and the entrance hall and is fitted with a range of base and eye level units with work top and incorporating a breakfast bar. From here you move directly to the utility room which has a door opening to the rear garden and a door to the useful ground floor shower room.

First Floor
The landing has a window to the side and doors opening to all three bedrooms. Two of the bedrooms are positioned at the front of the property while the third bedroom, positioned at the rear offers excellent views over the extensive rear garden and to the Chiltern Hills beyond. The family bathroom is positioned at this level and comprises a white three piece suite to include a panelled bath, wash basin and low level wc. From the landing there is also a hatch to the loft space which could also offer scope to convert STNP.

Outside
To the front of the property is a hardstanding driveway providing parking for several cars with an area of lawn to one side and a pedestrian gate to the other side with pathway to the side of the property extending into the rear garden. Southerly facing in aspect the rear garden is a real sun trap. Mainly laid to lawn there is a variety of mature specimen trees along the perimeters which are fully enclosed with fencing. To the rear section is a working garden area with a number of raised vegetable patches. Two timber framed garden sheds provide ideal storage space.

The Location

Tring is a pretty market town on the edge of the Chiltern Hills, mentioned in 1086 in the Domesday book. The town offers a wide range of recreational facilities, including a branch of the Natural History Museum, the Grand Union Canal, Pendley Court Theatre, and various sporting activities. Local shopping facilities are varied and include a selection of independent boutiques, plus larger chains such as Tesco and M&S Simply Food. There are also a number of restaurants and cafes, including Costa and Black Goo.

Education In The Area

The area boasts some excellent educational facilities, including Tring School. For those wishing to use the independent sector, Tring Park School for the Performing Arts, Berkhamsted School, and Chesham Preparatory School all have superb reputations. This property is also within easy striking distance of the Ofsted outstanding Goldfield Primary school and Bishopswood Junior School.

Transport Links

London is easily accessible. Both commuters to town, and those seeking some retail therapy at Westfield, are well catered for with Tring station providing regular and direct train services to London Euston and Shepherds Bush in a little over 40 minutes. Road links nearby include the A41, which provides dual carriageway access direct to the M25 (J20).
