A rare chance to purchase a delightful period home in an idyllic location.

Ground Floor

The living room which is positioned at the front of the property with views over the private garden. From the living room you walk through to a refitted kitchen that has space for a dining table. The kitchen is fitted with high gloss base and eye level units with built in with integrated appliances. At the rear of the kitchen houses and downstairs cloakroom.

First Floor

A landing area to the first floor has a door opening to the principal bedroom which has built in storage, plenty of hanging space and views over the garden. The second bedroom is positioned at the back of the property along with the 3 piece family bathroom. Loft space is ample and comes with the added benefit of power and electric points already being installed.

Outside

To the front of the property is a laid to lawn garden, patio area being part enclosed by panel fencing and path to front door. To the rear is side access that leads you back down to Vicarage Road.

The Location

A peaceful setting, perfectly situated in the verdant village of Pitstone, the location is a sanctuary away from busy city life. A thoughtfully selected location at the foot of the Chiltern Hills, filled with cycling and walking routes, you can immerse yourself in the outdoors whilst still being in easy reach of the neighbouring towns. A gem of the 17th century, Pitstone windmill, a beautifully restored window into history, offers stunning walks amongst the idyllic scenery. Pitstone is conveniently located just six miles east of Aylesbury and five miles south of Leighton Buzzard. Ivinghoe village is directly adjoined to Pitstone, allowing you to share the abundance of amenities on offer.
