Moments from Sandringham's royal parkland and a breezy four-mile hop to Norfolk's sandy coast, this sun-drenched three-bedroom bungalow in friendly Dersingham balances village ease with seaside adventure. Light streams through its open-plan living and dining spaces into a cook-friendly kitchen, while three tranquil bedrooms and a sleek wet room promise comfort after days outdoors. Step through patio doors into a private garden framed by colourful borders, with ample driveway parking and a remote-control garage ready for beach gear or a cherished classic car. Chain-free and ready when you are, it's a home that transforms everyday life into an endless holiday.
