PAYNE & Co

Guide Price £650,000 – £700,000. Payne & Co are pleased to offer for sale this well-proportioned semi-detached house in a highly convenient location, ideal for first-time buyers and families. The property features three reception rooms, providing versatile living and entertaining space. The first reception room is situated at the front of the house and benefits from a bay window, allowing in plenty of natural light. The second opens out to the rear garden and conveniently connects to the ground-floor shower room—perfect for flexible usage. Adjacent to the kitchen, the third reception room serves as an ideal dining space. The fitted kitchen offers a practical layout and includes access to a ground-floor WC for added convenience. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms—two comfortable doubles and a good-sized single—accommodating a variety of needs. The spacious family bathroom on the first floor is equipped with a four-piece suite. Externally, there is off-street parking to the front, along with part-covered side access used as additional storage. The rear garden extends to approximately 57ft with a desirable south-east facing aspect, backing onto Valentine's Park. The location benefits from local amenities, nearby schools, public transport links, and proximity to Gants Hill Underground station.
