A particularly well appointed, much improved and attractively presented, Edwardian, semi detached 5 bedroomed family residence.

This delightful Edwardian, semi-detached residence provides well planned and well proportioned accommodation throughout. Sympathetic attention to the Edwardian aesthetic means that the original character of this home is retained with details such as separate reception rooms and William Morris wallpaper in the garden room, hall, landing and Bedroom 2. The kitchen and breakfast room benefit from morning light and are bright and airy. These are the only rooms that don't have the original fireplace. There is a passive solar system for the provision of hot water via panels on the south facing roof. Gas central heating throughout.

Situated in a brilliant location on a lovely street, just a short walk from Coleham, with its fantastic and varied range of amenities and outstanding primary school, from which you are also only a few minutes' walk to the town centre via the Greyfriars footbridge.
