An attractive and well presented, two bedroom barn conversion.

'This attractive and well-presented, barn conversion has a wealth of period features, including exposed beams and stone walls. It has the potential to be a perfect family home or a holiday let. The accommodation is set over two floors and briefly comprises; entrance hall leading to kitchen/dining room, lounge, both with views across the fields, to the Stiperstones ridge. A wide staircase, flooded with natural light, leads to the bathroom and two double bedrooms. There is private parking/storage within a separate detached barn. A neatly kept rear garden has a high degree of privacy whilst enjoying beautiful panoramic views over the Shropshire countryside. The property benefits from double glazing, LPG gas fired central heating and no onward chain.

This property is situated in a small settlement of only five properties, nestling on the south edge of The Stiperstones, enjoying excellent walking routes within the South Shropshire AONB, The Devil's Chair and the Shropshire Way. Nearby amenities can be found in Wentnor, Church Stretton, Bishops Castle and the county town of Shrewsbury being about 13 miles away.
