A beautifully appointed three bedroom detached period cottage with barn, possessing charm and character throughout.

This three-bedroom, unlisted property has a wealth of charm and character with many original period features, briefly comprising; entrance hall, kitchen/breakfast room, conservatory, two reception rooms, cloakroom. Master bedroom with en-suite shower room and walk-in wardrobe, two further double bedrooms and bathroom. Lower ground floor cellar/storage. Utility room plus Grade II listed barn/workshop. The property benefits from oil fired central heating, solar panels, double and/or secondary glazing, and fast wifi/broadband speeds.

The house is pleasantly situated within the peaceful and picturesque village of Cardington, which consists of a number of stone-built properties, attractively set amongst the south Shropshire Hills approximately 12 miles south of Shrewsbury, 16 miles north of Ludlow and 4 ½ miles from Church Stretton. The village is also within comfortable travelling distance of Much Wenlock and Telford. Local amenities within the village include a 15th century pub, a village hall, and a Grade I listed 12th century church. The surrounding countryside provides wonderful opportunities for walking, cycling and other outdoor pursuits.
