A well presented, four bedroomed, detached part stone and brick built residence dating from the early 1980s.

The Property is a well presented detached part stone and brick built residence dating from the early 1980s built by the present owners. The Property stands well back from the main road over a gravelled driveway which forms a good size forecourt and also continues through double iron gates to the rear garden and provides parking for many vehicles. The spacious accommodation includes; reception hall, cloakroom/wc, L-shaped living room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, landing, main bedroom with en-suite shower, three further bedrooms and family bath/shower room. Garage and parking and attractive gardens.

Felhampton is a small hamlet located in the beautiful south Shropshire countryside about four miles south of Church Stretton. Church Stretton lies amidst the south Shropshire Hills midway between Shrewsbury (13 miles) and Ludlow (14 miles) along the A49 road. It can claim to be one of the most beautifully situated towns in England and attracts walkers and country lovers from all over the UK. It is a really thriving community with societies, clubs, cafes, public houses and restaurants. Including the neighbouring villages of All Stretton and Little Stretton, it offers excellent shopping facilities including a supermarket, and specialist shops, such as ladies and men's fashion shops.
