PLANNING PERMISSION CONSENT

Full B1 (Business) and B2 (General Industrial) was granted by the South Holland District Council under Ref H23-0385-02 in July 2002. There are certain conditions appertaining to the consent including the continuing relationship/ownership of the house and yard & buildings. A copy of the original consent is available for inspection from the Agents upon request. This contains various conditions which should be considered as part of the pre-purchasing investigations that are recommended to any interested parties.

OCCUPATIONS

Building 1 and 1a: These are let to three different occupiers with a cumulative annual rent of £10,200. Two of the occupations are on Contracted Out Leases and the third is by way of Licence. Further information on these are available upon request.

The remaining buildings (No. 2 & 2 (Workshops) are occupied by the Vendor and will therefore be available with Vacant Possession. However, the vendor will rent back the small workshop for a period of 6 months following completion on Terms to be agreed.

THE ANNEXE

The Vendor has also suggested that if the house annexe was available for six months following completion of the sale that he would be interested in taking a Shorthold Agreement Lease for such a period on terms to be agreed.

TENURE

The tenure of the property is all freehold.

POSSESSION

Fenland Manor is available with the benefit of vacant possession together with those buildings that are occupied by the vendor. Other Buildings occupied by third parties are subject to existing leases details of which are available from the agents.

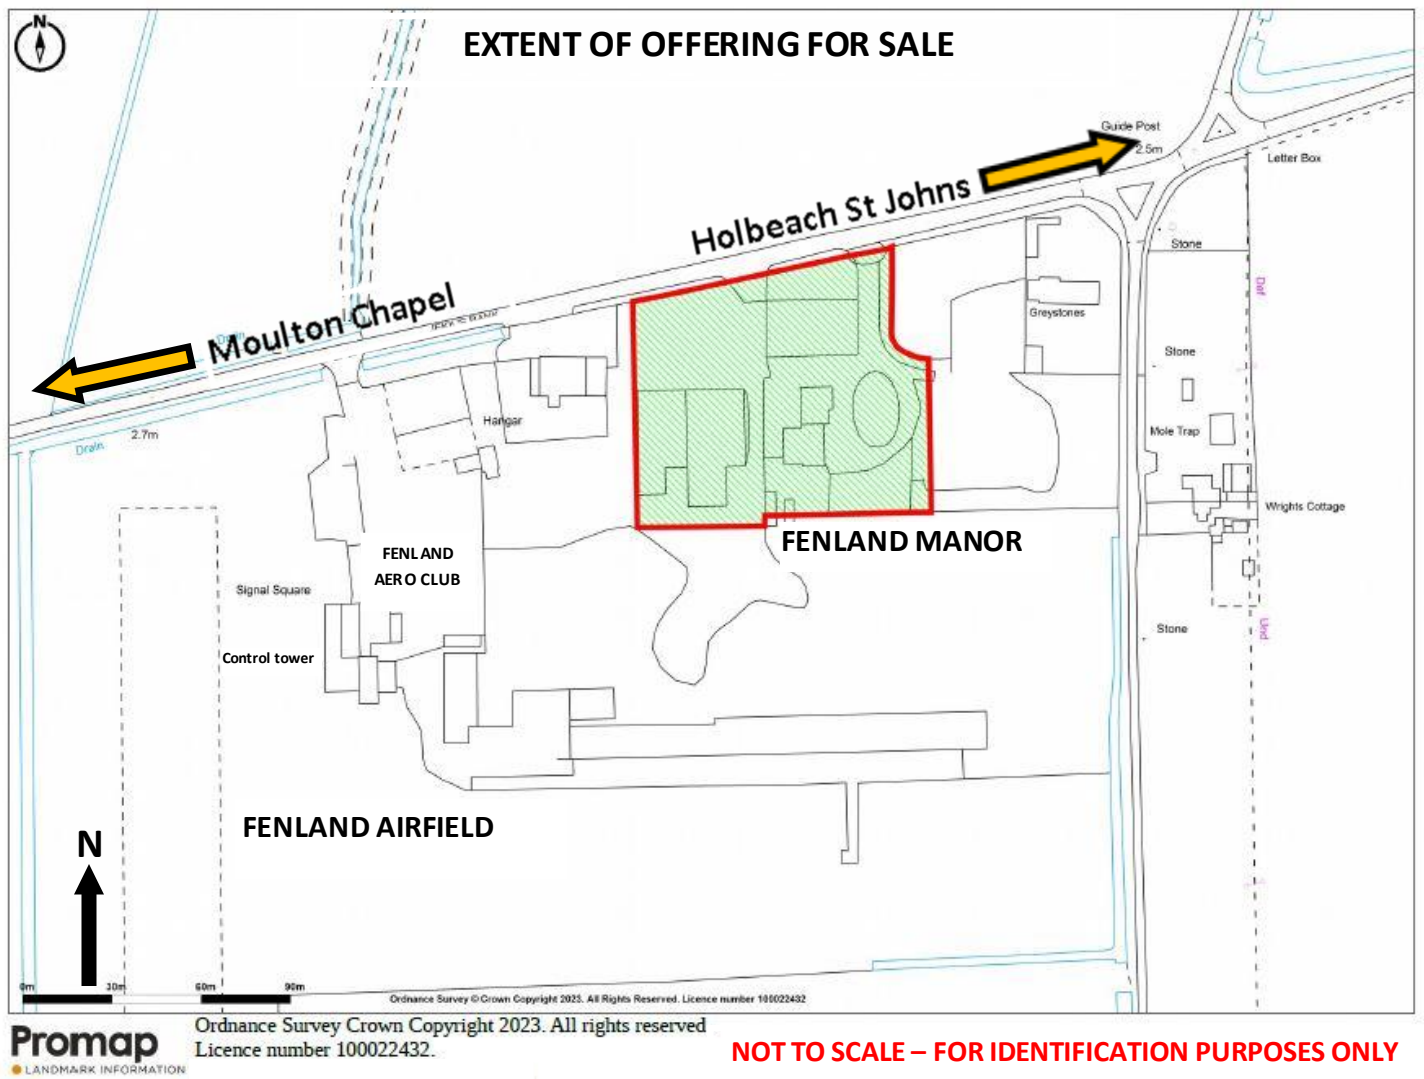

RATING ASSESSMENTS

We understand that the commercial part of the property is subject to the following rating assessments:

- a) Front ground floor workshop in Building 1 – Rateable Value £4,050
- b) Rear workshop in Building 1 – Rateable Value £10,750
- c) The right-hand workshops in building 2 – Rateable Value £16,500

NOTES

PLAN OF FENLAND MANOR

GENERAL INFORMATION

This is a fine example of Victorian architecture comprising a substantial red brick detached house with delightful established and well-maintained gardens, ample parking and garage facilities. In addition, there are extensive Commercial Buildings and yard (Part with vacant possession and part let). The vendor advised that the house has new replacement sash windows with toughened glass fitted in 2022. We are advised by the vendor that the house also has an early example of cavity brickwork.

The Property lies to the north and east of Fenland Airfield.

DIRECTIONS

The property is situated adjacent to commercial premises and the Fenland Airfield along Jekils Bank. From Spalding proceed along the B1165 Austendyke Road in an easterly direction continuing into Hurdletree Bank and on to Ravens Bank. At Whaplode St Catherine turn right into Cranesgate South, continue to the 'T' junction with Jekils Bank, turn right and the property is situated on the left-hand side before the Fenland Airfield.

AMENITIES

Along with the nearby Airfield for light aircraft which also has a café/restaurant, the nearest main amenities are at the market town of Holbeach which is around 5 miles from the property. Holbeach offers a range of shopping, leisure, educational, medical and commercial facilities. The larger town of Spalding is around 8 miles from the property and the cathedral city of Peterborough approximately 20 miles to the south. Peterborough has a fast train link with London's Kings Cross minimum journey time 46 minutes.
