Overview

Orchard House is an individually designed detached family home enjoying a position flanked by mature surroundings and benefitting from field/countryside views for most aspects. The property has flexible accommodation which in brief comprises reception hall, refitted cloakroom/WC, home office, living room, open plan family living kitchen (refitted 2024), with a range of high spec appliances, there is a utility room and pantry store; there is a further reception room which could be utilised as a family games room or formal dining room. On the first floor landing gives way to five bedrooms with contemporary fitted ensuite to the master, and a refitted family bathroom. The gardens and surrounds enjoy privacy to the plot, pleasant views to most aspects, further gardens to the front, side and rear in addition to a further plot of land with mature trees and shrubs located to the front of the property.

Location

Osgathorpe is a small village which lies in a fold of the hills in North West Leicestershire and is about a quarter of a mile from the A512 (Coalville to Loughborough) Road. Remains of a stretch of the long-abandoned Charnwood Forest Canal can be seen alongside a footpath to the south of the village, running from Thringstone to an area known locally as 'The Snarrows' The Storey Arms is the village pub and is hoping to undergo change with an injection of funding to refurbish as a 'community pub', functioning as a centre for additional village based initiatives and services, including a shop, parcel drop and meeting room. Nearest Airport: East Midlands (5.8 miles). Nearest Train Station: Loughborough: (8.7 miles). Nearest Town/City: Coalville (4.1 miles). Nearest Motorway: M1 (J23)
