Overview

Sinclair Estate Agents are delighted to present Snell's Nook Lodge, a slice of history occupying a position adjoining the entrance gates to Garendon Park. Snell's Nook Lodge is a grade II listed property built from Charnwood granite in approximately 1847 in the Tudor gothic style. The accommodation in brief comprises hall, living room, dining room, kitchen, downstairs wc, small cellar storage; two first floor bedrooms, bathroom and store/ potential study area. Outside there are generously proportioned private enclosed mature gardens with orchard, out stores and a driveway providing off road parking. No Upward Chain. EPC RATING F.

Location

The main entrance into the park is off Ashby Road, the A512, along the south side of the park. Adjoining the gate is Snell's Nook Lodge (listed grade II), a two-storey Charnwood granite building of 1847 in the Tudor gothic style designed by William Railton (d 1877). From here a drive swings east around the ridge surmounted with the Temple of Venus before joining an older drive from Shepshed, south-west of the park.

 Distances have been taken from Google maps and are shown as shortest distance by road. These should be taken as approximate figures.
