Overview

Presenting a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious semi-detached house within a sought after village of Osgathorpe having well presented accommodation to include four double bedrooms on the first floor and ground floor with entrance hall, lounge, full fitted kitchen, superb conservatory to the rear and a ground floor bathroom. The house also benefits from oil fired central heating, uPVC double glazed windows and doors and a new roof in recent years. Outside the property is set back from the Ashby Road within a crescent and overlooking a neighbouring lawned green with mature trees and views across the open countryside beyond. A gravel frontage sets the house back from the close with a tarmac driveway and large south facing rear garden landscaped with a paved terrace, brick built outhouses and timber shed and summer house.

Location

Osgathorpe is a small village which lies in a fold of the hills in North West Leicestershire and is about a quarter of a mile from the A512 (Coalville to Loughborough) Road. Remains of a stretch of the long-abandoned Charnwood Forest Canal can be seen alongside a footpath to the south of the village, running from Thringstone to an area known locally as 'The Snarrows' The Storey Arms is the village pub and is hoping to undergo change with an injection of funding to refurbish as a 'community pub', functioning as a centre for additional village based initiatives and services, including a shop, parcel drop and meeting room. Nearest Airport: East Midlands (5.8 miles). Nearest Train Station: Loughborough: (8.7 miles). Nearest Town/City: Coalville (4.1 miles). Nearest Motorway: M1 (J23)

OUTSIDE

Property is superbly positioned in the sought after village of Osgathorpe, one of several brick built semi-detached houses set back from the main Ashby Road with a lawned green with mature trees and crescent leading up to the properties providing on street parking. House has a gravelled frontage with wooden picket fencing and affords lovely open views across the neighbouring open countryside beyond. A tarmac driveway provides car standing space continuing to the side of the house with a gate to the rear garden, door to the outhouse for storage, outside power point, security and coach light by the front door.

REAR GARDEN

Fantastic feature to the property is the large south facing rear garden attractively landscaped with an extensive paved terrace in natural stone and block paved edging creating a perfect seating area outside the conservatory French doors. Two further brick built outhouses both with power and lighting and one housing the oil fired central heating boiler with oil storage tank screened by trellis to the side of the outhouse. In addition to the outbuildings there is also timber garden shed and lovely summer house with full height glazed windows and French doors. Beyond the paved terrace there is section gravel boarders and a path leading through the picket fence and gate to the remainder of the garden which is also been laid to stone for ease of maintenance and left open to the neighbouring properties although partially enclosed by mature shrubs.
