Overview

Sinclair Estate Agents are delighted to present White Lodge, a slice of history set within the picturesque Garendon Park. The Grade II listed property is approached via the eye catching Temple of Venus and lies next to the impressive Triumphal Arch (not included in sale).

White Lodge, perhaps 17th century in origin and re-modelled early 19th Century is stone built and stucco faced with a hipped Swithland slate roof. Internally the property comprises reception hall, two reception rooms, re-fitted kitchen; on the first floor a landing gives way to three bedrooms (the third and bathroom accessed from a further study landing area.) To the lower floor there is a utility room, separate boiler room and access to a vaulted cellar

Outside there are walled gardens to the side and a series of outbuildings including kennels, stables and a barn/ store/ workshop. The buildings offer scope for improvement and alternative uses subject to the necessary planning and consents. Offered with no upward chain.

Location

The main entrance into the park is off Ashby Road, the A512, along the south side of the park. Adjoining the gate is Snell's Nook Lodge. From here a drive swings east around the ridge surmounted with the Temple of Venus before joining an older drive from Shepshed, south-west of the property. This passes the White Lodge. On the south side is a central, double door with radiating fanlight above approached by seven steps. The lodge stands approx 100m west of the Triumphal Arch, and serves as an eyecatcher from the Ashby Road. The present drive serves White Lodge, and now runs from it west of the Triumphal Arch before running north-east to the buildings in the northern part of the park.

 Distances have been taken from Google maps and are shown as shortest distance by road. These should be taken as approximate figures.
