Property Showcases

As you arrive at the residential car park of this purpose-built apartment complex, you are immediately struck by the convenience of a barrier-protected area, ensuring security and exclusivity. Access to the complex is available from both the front and back, providing flexibility for residents. A video entry system adds an extra layer of security as you make your way to the communal entrance. Upon entering the complex, you are faced with a choice between stairs and a lift to reach the third floor. The lift ensures ease of access, and once you arrive, your own front door awaits. Turning the key, you step into a bright and spacious entrance hall that serves as the gateway to the entire apartment. The first room you encounter is the expansive double aspect lounge/kitchen/diner. This multifunctional space is the heart of the home, offering versatility and a welcoming atmosphere. Natural light floods the room, enhancing the sense of openness. Notably, this room also grants access to a private balcony, providing an outdoor retreat for relaxation or entertaining. Continuing through the entrance hall, you find the large double bedroom, where beautiful views of the private balcony await. The design prioritizes both comfort and aesthetics, creating a serene and appealing bedroom space. The final room accessible from the entrance hall is the three-piece bathroom suite. The bathroom is thoughtfully equipped with a thermostatically controlled shower, ensuring a comfortable and consistent water temperature. The suite also includes a low-level flush W/C with a concealed cistern, combining functionality with a modern aesthetic. Adding practicality to the apartment, a large built-in storage cupboard is conveniently located just off the entrance hall. This feature allows for organised storage of belongings, contributing to the overall efficiency and tidiness of the living space. In conclusion, this one-bedroom third-floor apartment is a well-designed and secure residence, boasting a spacious layout, modern amenities, and a private balcony. Whether you seek a cosy retreat or a place to entertain, this apartment provides a comfortable and stylish living environment.
