The Area

Branston offers a surprisingly good range of local amenities. There are well respected primary and secondary schools, a doctor's surgery, Co-op supermarket, fast food/shop outlets, a popular café, public houses and more.

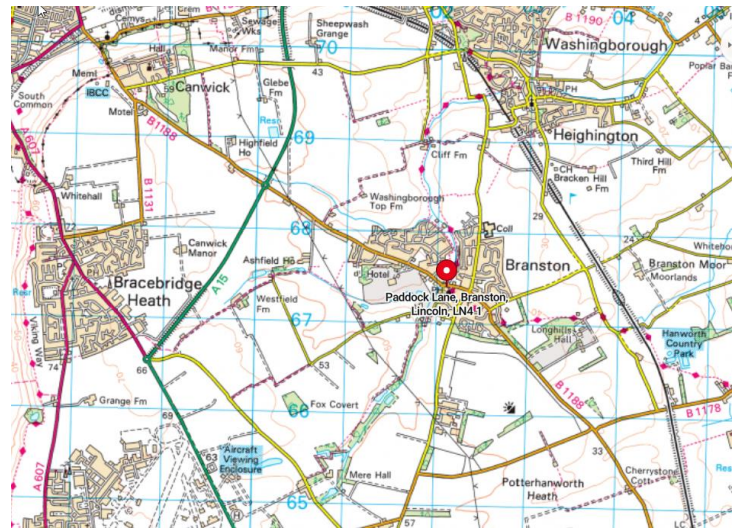

The Historic City of Lincoln and its excellent range of shopping and social facilities are just 4 miles away to the north. Less than 0.5 of a mile to the north of the village there is direct access onto the 'Lincoln Eastern Bypass' which offers very quick route around to the east and north of the city. This relatively new bypass has now made the south eastern escarpment villages, such as Branston more accessible to many families across the region.

The village is also well located for service personnel at nearby RAF Waddington and a number of other service bases in the region.
