Additionally, a Quooker boiling water tap in the kitchen offers convenience and efficiency, epitomizing the blend of luxury and practicality that defines this exceptional property.

As you approach the property, a charming carriage driveway guides you towards a large double garage, providing ample space for multiple vehicles and additional storage. The property boasts wonderful, well-stocked gardens that are meticulously maintained, featuring a diverse array of plants and features that add vibrant colours throughout the seasons. Mature trees and carefully curated shrubs create a serene and picturesque setting. This verdant oasis is perfect for gardening enthusiasts and nature lovers alike, providing a haven where one can relax, unwind, and enjoy the beauty of the outdoors in complete privacy. The combination of its prime location, spacious grounds, and enchanting gardens makes this property a rare and desirable gem. Energy rating B.

Cherry Garden Lane comprises a handful of established homes, all on substantial plots and located on the eastern side of the picturesque village of Danbury. The house is within easy access of local shops, amenities, two Preparatory Schools (Heathcote in Danbury itself and Elm Green in Little Baddow) and two state schools including Danbury Park Primary School (rated Outstanding by Ofsted in 2013). The village is surrounded by a wealth of National Trust woodland, including the historic landscape of Danbury Park (a former medieval deer park). Only six miles due west of Danbury is the city of Chelmsford and its excellent choice of facilities, which include two outstanding Grammar Schools, shopping centre, and a station on the main line into London Liverpool Street. To the east is the market town of Maldon with it's bustling High Street and historic Hythe Quay. The A12 and Sandon Park & Ride service (popular with commuters and shoppers) are just a couple of miles away.
