AVAILABLE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN OVER FORTY YEARS.... Located in the charming village of East Hanningfield which lies on the outskirts of Chelmsford city centre, is this well proportioned four bedroom detached family home. Offering four good sized bedrooms and large bathroom to the first floor, whilst to the ground floor are two separate reception rooms, garden room and kitchen breakfast room. Enjoying a larger than average southerly aspect rear garden, and good sized driveway as well as the property's double garage. The house is situated in a quiet lane, yet offers easy access to the village centre which offers a small selection of amenities such as shop/post office, 2 restaurants one of which being the incredibly popular Vita Bella restaurant. There is also a village primary school and good access to nearby secondary schools. There are regular bus services to nearby villages and Chelmsford city centre, which offers everything one would expect from a thriving city centre including its mainline station to London Liverpool Street, and there are also stations at both South Woodham Ferrers & Wickford which also go to London. Major roads throughout the county are also just a short drive away. Energy Rating D
