Asking price £765,000

For sale: A stunning four-bedroom property located in a highly sought-after residential area, just minutes from Turnpike Lane underground station (Piccadilly Line), Green Lanes, and Wood Green. This quiet, well-maintained home has been carefully restored to reflect its period charm, with most fixtures and fittings handmade and bespoke.

The living room, bedroom, and kitchen all feature custom-built joinery, with kitchen worktops crafted from locally storm-felled oak. The front bedroom boasts an original fireplace, and the bathroom is fitted with a vintage bath.

The property is located within the catchment area for several highly rated local primary and secondary schools, many of which have received Good or Outstanding grades from Ofsted. Belmont Recreation Ground and Downhills Park are just a few minutes' walk away, as are Turnpike Lane tube and
