

EASTCOTE LANE, HARROW

Four/Five Bedroom Detached House

Guide Price £799,950

Robertson Phillips are delighted to bring to the market this well presented detached house built originally in the 1970's to a high specification and subsequently modernised by the current owners. The property offers flexible accommodation and can be used as five bedrooms including a ground floor guests bedroom with en-suite shower room. There are numerous features to the property which will appeal to a cross section of buyers and we anticipate generous interest. A spacious L-shaped entrance reception leads to all ground floor rooms including a luxury kitchen/diner measuring some 16'2 x 12'3, two spacious reception rooms, a guests cloakroom and the aforementioned guests bedroom suite. The first floor accommodation comprises three large double bedrooms and a sizable family bathroom with a 5 piece suite. Multiple off street parking to the front via a carriage driveway and a delightful Mediterranean style rear garden.

Location: Eastcote Lane is located perfectly for travel into central London, being 0.3 miles away from South Harrow tube station. There is also a vast selection of eateries and amenities just walking distance from the property. Alexandra Park is also within walking distance, if you are looking for outside space.
