78 JACKSON ROAD
Matlock, DE4 3JQ
Guide Price: £650,000 - £700,000

Total area: approx. 308.6 sq. metres (3321.7 sq. feet)

An exceptionally spacious and well-presented townhouse, situated in a prominent position with commanding views over the town to the open countryside of the Derwent Valley. Originally built as a hydropathic hotel in 1862, the property has now been handsomely converted in 2010 to a spacious family home with accommodation over five floors and offering: five bedrooms, four bathrooms, two spacious reception rooms, dining kitchen, utility room, and integral garaging. There is a driveway providing off road parking and a garden area taking advantage of the southerly aspect.

Matlock is a picturesque spa town in the heart of Derbyshire close to the Peak District National Park, surrounded by beautiful open countryside. The town has a wealth of historic buildings as well as excellent local amenities and good primary and secondary schools. At the centre of the town is Hall Leys Park with sports facilities, children's play area, formal gardens, and a riverside walk. Situated on the A6 trunk road, there is easy access to Manchester, Derby and Nottingham and the nearby towns of Chesterfield (9 miles), Wirksworth (4.5miles) and Bakewell (8 miles). There is a branch line train station with a regular service to Derby and Nottingham.

Entering the property via a half-glazed entrance door with floor-length sidelight panel, which opens to:

SITTING ROOM

A delightfully spacious room with side-aspect UPVC double-glazed windows flooding the room with natural light and enjoying fine far-reaching views over the surrounding properties to the open countryside beyond. The room has elegant cornice to the ceiling, centre ceiling roses, and wood-effect laminate flooring. There is a corner feature fireplace with a dressed stone surround and hearth, housing a log-burning stove. There are central heating radiators with thermostatic valves, a point for a wall-mounted TV, and wall and centre light points. A panelled door opens to:

HALLWAY

Having a half-glazed entrance door opening onto the lane to the side of the property. There is a side-aspect window, central heating radiator with thermostatic valve, cornice to the ceiling, and a panelled door opening to a deep storage cupboard housing the mains pressure hot water cylinder and providing storage space. Further panelled doors open to:
