Total area: approx. 121.7 sq. metres (1309.4 sq. feet)

Situated on a quiet cul-de-sac of similar high-quality properties, enjoying a slightly elevated position with delightful far-reaching views, this spacious bungalow property offers: three bedrooms; wet-room shower; separate WC; living-dining room; and fitted kitchen. There are low-maintenance gardens to the front of the property, with landscaped gardens to the rear. There is a conservatory overlooking the valley with delightful views. The property has the benefit of a ramped access path, driveway parking and a detached garage.

Cromford is a small village with a lot of historical interest, being the site of the first successful water-powered cotton mill in the country. The village grew up around the mill, the majority of the houses being built by the mill owner Richard Arkwright (founder of the English Sewing Cotton Company). Today the village is part of the Valley Mills World Heritage Site and offers good local amenities with easy access to the nearby towns of Wirksworth (1.8 miles), Matlock (2.6 miles), and Belper (7.8 miles), and is within commuting distance of Derby and Nottingham and has easy access to the M1 Motorway via the A38 trunk road. There is a branch line train station with a regular service to Derby and Nottingham.

Entering the property via a half-glazed panelled entrance door with double-glazed sidelight windows. The door opens to
