Joules are privileged to bring to the market this exceptionally well presented tradition detached home, built circa 1935 and having undergone a host of improvements over the years including a kitchen extension and providing excellent family accommodation. Situated in a much sought after location this wonderful home briefly comprises: Entrance porch, reception hallway with open balustrade staircase, cloakroom, sitting/dining room to the front elevation with bay window, rear lounge with French doors opening onto the rear garden and a quality extended kitchen with a comprehensive range of units. Venturing upstairs you will find two good sized double bedrooms and an equally good sized single bedroom. The bathroom has been refitted to provide a luxury four piece suite with Burlington mid level WC, stand alone bath and separate shower.

Outside off road parking is providing to the front elevation and giving access to the attached garage, to the rear is a delightful fully enclosed garden with PVC decking, astroturfed areas and paved patios. Abutting the property is The Bee Inn with canopied bar areas surrounding.

This property is one of the most tastefully presented and decorated properties I have seen in a long time and is a must for a viewing !
