A beautiful two bed end mews set in a quiet and peaceful cul-de-sac. Downstairs the property comprises of a delightful kitchen/dining area and an inviting lounge with patio doors opening onto a pleasant rear garden and patio area. Upstairs there are two well proportioned double bedrooms with ample built-in storage space, bathroom with shower and the extra bonus of a study/office/storage room. The house is warmed by gas central heating. Outside, the garden and patio area offers a serene space in which to relax. The property really does emanate a contented air, while the location is leafy, private and tranquil. Although being nicely tucked away, the property is still ideally located for access to the M60 and is also within walking distance of Stockport Town Centre.
