

Bryneira Hall Lane, Rhosllanerchrugog, Wrexham, LL14 1TG
Offers In The Region Of £395,000

Situated in a sought after and favoured semi rural location is this impressive three bedroom detached bungalow which occupies a generous size plot extending to approximately 0.91 acres. Bryneira was built in 1970 and has never been on the sales market, proving a delightful home and benefitting from open countryside views and no onward chain. In brief the accommodation affords porch, entrance hall, open plan living/dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, family bathroom, rear hall and cloakroom. Externally there is an attached garage, driveway and parking area, landscaped gardens, rear patio entertainment area and adjoining paddock. This property offers tremendous potential for development, with ample opportunities to extend upwards and enhance its value and functionality.

LOCATION

Rhosllanerchrugog has a thriving village community which provides wide-ranging schooling, shopping and other social amenities including a Health Centre and a Theatre. The village is situated some three miles from Wrexham and only two miles from the nearest access-point onto the A483, from where there is dual carriageway access to Chester (16 miles) and the north west motorway network beyond. Bryneira is located just on the outskirts of the village benefitting from a quiet position with beautiful countryside views.
