DESCRIPTION

The property has been converted to a high specification retaining as many original features as possible by blending the old characterful façade with its high arched windows and stone elevations with a modern interior ideal for 21st century living. The property has been transformed into a superb and stylish home with light and airy accommodation spanning over 260m<sup>2</sup> arranged over two floors. The accommodation is characterized by high ceilings, open plan spaces and original stone windows and period features. Despite the size of this property it is very economical with low running costs.

Nestled in a picturesque setting, this property offers a multitude of different walks with its scenic bridle paths and woodland trails just a leisurely stroll away. Immerse yourself in the vibrant community life, as the nearby community hall hosts a plethora of activities, all within a convenient 5-minute drive. For everyday conveniences, the small town of Caresws, located less than 4 miles away by car, boasts a range of amenities including hairdressers, a doctor's surgery, and an award-winning fish and chip shop. Delve into the rich Roman history of the area, enjoy fishing excursions, and revel in the sense of connectivity that this thriving community offers.
