A beautifully presented four double bedroom detached home, built by David Wilson to their popular 'Holden' design, located on the desirable Overstone Gate development. Set in a quiet position, the property offers spacious living space with high spec open plan kitchen/dining/family room.

Accommodation comprises entrance hall, cloakroom/WC, study, large sitting room, high spec open plan kitchen/dining/family room with fitted appliances and French doors opening to the rear garden and access to a utility room, first floor landing, master bedroom with ensuite and fitted wardrobes, three further double bedrooms, two with fitted wardrobes and a family bathroom with separate enclosed shower. Outside is low maintenance frontage with large tarmac driveway to the side providing off road parking for approximately three cars leading to detached single garage with light and power. The rear garden is fully enclosed with lawn area, patio and access to the driveway. For the budding gardeners there are new allotments opening shortly within walking distance to the property as well as a brand new primary school opening in September 2025. Excellent transport links to the M1 motorway and within easy access to local supermarkets. Further benefits include uPVC double glazing with fitted shutters to windows, gas central heating and NHBC certificate. (A/1536/M)
