Talybont and its Surrounds

Talybont is an extremely popular coastal village located on the western fringe of the Snowdonia National Park. The area has sandy beaches, woodland, rivers and waterfalls. Talybont also has a restaurant, public houses and a railway station with links to the local towns of Barmouth and Porthmadog, and extending to the Midlands and beyond. The nearby village of Dyffryn Ardudwy provides good local amenities including a school, village hall, shops, petrol station, cafes and an art gallery. It is just under five miles from Barmouth with its harbour and the Mawddach Estuary and within a short drive is Harlech, famous for its castle. There is so much on offer with paddle-boarding, boat trips, fishing, sea swimming, rock climbing, walking and cycling plus the Royal St David's links golf course in Harlech, Coed-y-Brenin is close by for mountain biking or for adrenaline seekers there's Zip World Slate Caverns at Blaenau Ffestiniog or walks to Cadair Idris (all within 22 miles). There are many historic sites, castles, museums and events to be enjoyed. Snowdonia National Park offers plenty of footpaths and cycle routes, superb fishing, varied activities and events alongside the breath-taking scenery.
