Sarnwaun

Dyffryn Ardudwy | LL44 2BH

Sarnwaun is a most attractive and spacious 3 bedroom detached home with beautiful sea, countryside and mountain views, a larger than average garden and located in a very popular coastal village location.

With modern green credentials and an EPC RATING OF 'B' it benefits from a recently installed air source heat pump and photovoltaic panels and this well maintained property is beautifully presented throughout.

There are 2 reception rooms, a stylish kitchen and conservatory plus 3 double bedrooms (all with sea views and one with en-suite). In addition there is a family bathroom and ground floor WC. A home office on the ground floor could make a 4th bedroom if required. To the front is a large garden, driveway parking and a large garage with utility area.

Patio doors from the dining and living rooms open to the garden and the heated conservatory with insulated roof can be enjoyed all year round. The living room also has a cosy log burning stove.

The layout has been designed to create a pleasing flow and maximise both the generous garden plot and sea views. The mature landscaped garden is of above average size, sunny and private with large patio, summer house and greenhouse.

Located in the popular village of Dyffryn Ardudwy, Sarnwaun will make proud new owners a delightful coastal home and we recommend making an appointment to view at the earliest opportunity.
