Perth Y Deri

Dyffryn Ardudwy || LL44 2EP

One of the most idyllic properties on the coastline, Perth Y Deri is a unique and stunning glass fronted property sitting proudly in approx 1 acre of secluded grounds facing the sea in the popular village of Dyffryn Ardudwy.

This property boasts a magnificent glazed gable end overlooking the coast with doors out to a large raised terrace with glass balustrade. The property is a blend of both new extension and complete rebuild resulting in an incredible high end finish throughout. The views are expansive and breathtaking across Cardigan Bay to the Llyn Peninsular and Bardsey Island.

Special features of the house included the beamed vaulted ceilings, a luxury kitchen with a sea of granite, open plan living area with cosy log burner in exposed stone fire place, underfloor heating to the lounge/kitchen/diner and the magnificent glazed gable end with expansive sea views leading out to the sun terrace.

There are three double bedrooms all with french doors, and one with en-suite, plus family bathroom. There is a large pergola with automatic retractable roof and sides designed to enjoy the outdoors whatever the weather.

One of the highlights of this property is the expansive sea view that can be enjoyed from many of the rooms, providing a sense of tranquillity and relaxation. Situated in a rural location surrounded by fields and woodland, this house offers a peaceful retreat from the hustle and bustle of city life.

It is impossible to summarise the sheer quality of the build, the accommodation on offer and the idyllic location and we recommend you view the video to fully appreciate this magical property.

Combining luxury with contemporary living makes Perth Y Deri a perfect choice for those seeking a modern lifestyle in a serene semi rural coastal setting. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of paradise in Dyffryn Ardudwy.

Dyffryn Ardudwy and its Surrounds

Perth Y Deri is located in a secluded but not isolated position in the the charming village of Dyffryn Ardudwy which lies between Harlech and Barmouth in Gwynedd, North Wales. Dyffryn sits on the narrow coastal strip between the glorious sandy beaches of Cardigan Bay to the west and the foothills of Snowdonia to the east. It is fabulous walking country with rolling hills, golden sands and wooded valleys to be explored. The landscape is full of history and the village attracts visitors seeking relaxing beaches, walking and ancient settlements and historical artefacts. This village offers good local shops, cafes, pubs and an art gallery. The surrounding area has an exciting array of wildlife and birds including soaring buzzards and red kites.

The bustling town of Harlech is just 4 miles away, dominated by its majestic 13th century castle which is a World Heritage Site. Popular with golfers due to its famous Royal St. David's course, Harlech also boasts an excellent variety of amenities including restaurants and shops. The nearby resort of Barmouth offers an amazing Panorama Walk with breathtaking views and also a harbour from which you can enjoy a ferry to Fairbourne for a ride on the miniature railway or a boat trip out to sea to try mackerel fishing.
