Llanaber and Barmouth

Llanaber is a coastal village just 0.7 miles north of Barmouth. It has the Irish Sea and Cardigan Bay to the west and the Rhinog mountains to the East. The Welsh Coastal Path is just minutes walk from the property and is a halt for the Cambrian Coastal Railway.

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia

National Park. There is a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.
