Barmouth Resort

The picturesque seaside town of Barmouth is located on the West Coast of North Wales and lying between a mountain range and the sea on the mouth of the river Mawddach, is arguably one of the most beautiful locations in Wales. The town itself offers an array of restaurants, pubs, cafes, local independent shops, a bustling harbour, and a leisure centre.

The surrounding countryside and long sandy beaches provide superb opportunities for outdoor/water activities such as sailing, fishing, walking, climbing, and birdwatching. It is southern Eryri's most popular seaside resort, with breathtaking views of Cardigan Bay and its harbour. With the picturesque River Mawddach flowing through the town and out to sea, many tourists arrive in Barmouth to explore Eryri National Park and walk around the sweeping curve of Cardigan Bay to Porthmadog.

The family-friendly beach with golden sands, stretches for miles around the sweeping bay and has been awarded a Blue Flag for cleanliness and safety, the waters are perfect for swimming and surfing. There's plenty for children to enjoy too. Nearby, the mile-long promenade is lined with stalls selling ice cream and candy floss and a land train running along. There are also traditional donkey rides, swing boats and amusement arcades.
