Cader Betti

Barmouth | | LL42 1DQ

Sited in a wonderful location above Barmouth, this unique coastal residence offers breathtaking panoramic views of the beautiful Mawddach Estuary, Barmouth Bay, the iconic Barmouth Bridge, and the stunning mountains of Cader Idris. This historic four/five-bedroom property is truly unique boasting well-maintained gardens and terraces that enhance its appeal, along with the added benefit of a self-contained self-catering annex which could provide a healthy income potential.

The main house features a spacious layout, comprising two reception rooms, two comfortable bedrooms, a study, a kitchen/sitting room, a utility room, and two bathrooms. The original stone-built structure has been thoughtfully extended with a blend of block and timber, creating a spacious living space that retains its character while offering ample room for family living.

The self-contained annex, which includes two bedrooms, a kitchenette, a lounge, and a bathroom, presents a versatile opportunity. It could serve as a separate living space for guests or be easily incorporated into the main property, depending on your needs.

Both the main residence and annexe benefit from the panoramic views and tranquil surrounds. The garden is wonderful and mature with lawns, patios, garden buildings and a vegetable plot, all facing the coastline and mountains.

Cader Betti is perfectly situated, providing a serene retreat with peace and tranquillity, yet it is just minutes away from Barmouth's vibrant high street and sandy beaches. Additionally, the popular market town of Dolgellau is within easy reach, offering further amenities and attractions.

While the property has been well maintained, new owners will wish to undertake some modernisation to bring the interior up to date.

This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of history in a stunning location, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a coastal lifestyle with the potential for personalisation.

Barmouth and its Surrounds

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park. There is a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.
