Located on a small development in the beautiful village of Llanfrothen, this splendid four-bedroom detached house offers a perfect blend of spacious living and picturesque surroundings. The property boasts breathtaking rural and mountain views, making it an ideal retreat for those seeking tranquillity and natural beauty.

The accommodation is both flexible and generous, featuring four well-proportioned double bedrooms, one of which includes a spacious walk in dressing room. A fantastic balcony runs the width of the house providing a serene spot to enjoy the stunning vistas. The semi-open plan lounge and kitchen diner create a welcoming atmosphere, perfect for both family gatherings and entertaining guests. Additionally, there is potential for a self-contained annex on the ground floor, offering versatility for extended family or guests.

The property is exceptionally well-maintained, with new doors, windows, and a boiler installed in 2019, ensuring comfort and efficiency. Fully double-glazed and equipped with a modern oil-fired central heating system, this home promises warmth and security throughout the year.

Outside, the mature and sunny gardens to the front and rear provide ample space for outdoor activities and relaxation. A large integral garage/workshop adds further convenience, catering to those with hobbies or requiring extra storage.

Situated within walking distance of local amenities, including a village pub, café, shop, and transport links, this property combines rural living with accessibility. Whether you are looking for a family home or a peaceful retreat, this house in Morfa Gaseg is a remarkable opportunity not to be missed.

Llanfrothen and its Surrounds

The charming and interesting hamlet of Llanfrothen is located just 5 miles from the harbour town of Porthmadog and sits amongst glorious countryside surrounded by stunning natural scenery in the foothills of Snowdonia. In walking distance is the local cafe and shop run by a local father and daughter, selling adventurous food, craft beers, great wine plus all the daily essentials from groceries to newspapers. Minutes walk away is the renown pub the Brondanw Arms (known locally as The Ring) which has recently been purchased by the community and is about to be reopened. The village is also home to Plas Brondanw the family home of Clough Williams-Ellis, creator of the Italianate village Portmeirion, and elements of similar architectural styles can be seen at both locations. Plas Brondanw cafe and gardens are open to the public.

For nature lovers there are stunning walks from the doorstep in all directions. Walkers & climbers will enjoy the close proximity of The Moelwyns, Cnicht and Tremadog Rocks. A short walk takes you to the Glaslyn Osprey Centre where you can watch these rare birds in their natural surroundings.
