Barmouth | | LL42 1LX

Located on the iconic Porkington Terrace of Barmouth, this delightful three-bedroom apartment occupying the top floor of a Victorian stone built house offers a unique blend of character and modern living.

This spacious apartment has the most beautiful Mawddach Estuary and Cader Idris Range views from all front facing rooms. It is light and bright throughout with very attractive rock and greenery views to the rear.

The vendors have created a charming private patio to the rear and additionally, residents have access to a shared private garden for No 2 plus communal gardens for Porkington Terrace residents just across the road.

The well proportioned and generous accommodation includes a spacious kitchen and dining area, large lounge with incredible views and 3 bedrooms, bathroom with bath and shower, plus small utility.

The high ceilings and stripped floorboards add to the home's charm, while the feature fireplaces (not in use) serve as stunning focal points in the living spaces. In addition there is access to a large private loft space providing ample storage. Also, there is a shared secure external storage area.

With extremely well-maintained communal areas, there are only 4 apartments in the building, all with a share of the Freehold and on road parking is available opposite.

Located just minutes from the "secret beach" below and a short stroll to the Quay, high street and train station, you will find yourself perfectly positioned to enjoy the best of Barmouth's coastal lifestyle.

Numerous walks are on the door step - both 'on the flat' by crossing Barmouth railway bridge and onwards towards Dolgellau along a disused railway line now opened as a cycle/pedestrian path known as the 'Mawddach Trail'. Alternatively, mountain routes above Barmouth, including the famous 'Panorama Walk' can be easily reached.

This charming apartment is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice, offering both comfort and convenience in one of Wales' most picturesque locations

Barmouth and its Surrounds

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park. There is a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.
