Bryn Gwynt

Barmouth | Merionethshire | LL42 1AZ

Bryn Gwynt is a cut above above, with its seaside setting, spectacular UNINTERRUPTED COASTAL VIEWS, incredibly stylishly RENOVATION and LARGE EXTENSION, it is guaranteed to take the breath away.

Whether you're enjoying a quiet coffee in front of the balcony with the morning sun rise, watching dolphins swim past, sun bathing to the sound of waves, or sharing a bottle of rosé and a BBQ in front of a spectacular sunset– this place makes it all feel effortless.

Boasting three bedrooms; the principal bedroom suite is remarkable and spans the entire first floor including dual aspect Juliette balconies with both sliding and bi-fold doors which maximise the spectacular views, bring in the sound of the waves, and allow the fresh coastal air to drift through. In addition there is a well appointed en-suite with both free standing bath and large shower, plus a large dressing room.

The kitchen/diner is the piece de resistance with a sea of granite worktops and island, bespoke units and high end appliances. Open plan to the dining area, patio doors to the front and bi-folding doors to the side seamlessly connect the outside and in and allow full appreciation of the immense sweep of the bay and the incredible location.

Glazed doors open to the cosy lounge providing a lovely flow to the accommodation. The enamel Stanley log burner provides a cosy focal point for chilly winter nights.

There are two ground floor double bedrooms and a shower room.

The coastal facing gardens are beautifully landscaped with lawns, slate patios and a large shed, all bound by stone walling and there is a driveway parking to the front.

Aluminium double glazed windows and oil fired central heating ensure comfort in all weathers.

With beach access just a few minutes walk and the hustle and bustle of Barmouth high street just a short drive or walk away, Bryn Gwynt offers the best of coastal living and we recommend booking a viewing asap as we are sure this unique property will capture your heart.

About Bryn Gwynt

Parts of the original property date back to 1650 and it is located close to a 13th century church. The current owners have extensively renovated and extended in 2015/6 with great pride and attention to detail.

The interior has been completely refurbished, rewired and re-plumbed throughout, a high end Tegla kitchen has been installed and new bathrooms. The property has been extensively insulated and a new central heating system installed during the renovation work.

The property has been re-roofed and the gardens landscaped to include slate patio areas and feature stone walling.

The whole house has been professionally redecorated in 2024 by Hodgson Painters & Decorators.

A new septic tank installed with soak away within the boundary of the property as part of the renovation.

Llanaber and Barmouth

Llanaber is a coastal village just 0.7 miles north of Barmouth. It has the Irish Sea and Cardigan Bay to the west and the Rhinog mountains to the East. The Welsh Coastal Path is just minutes walk from the property as is a halt for the Cambrian Coastal Railway.

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park. There is a a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.
