Bronallt

Harlech | Merionethshire | LL46 2SG

An opportunity to acquire a piece of Harlech history, this spacious home is bursting with traditional features and located in the heart of Harlech village with the benefit of beautiful landscaped GARDENS, sea and castle VIEWS, PARKING and a quirky interesting past to boot. Bronallt offers all of this and more with the potential to add value by developing the small barn attached.

This 3/4 bedroom property has an open plan lounge/kitchen/diner with beamed ceilings and an inglenook fireplace large enough to sit in. Three bedrooms on the first floor all have views of Snowdon and the entire second floor is an attic room with high vaulted ceiling, exposed A frame beams and fantastic views of Snowdon, the Glaslyn estuary and coast.

The large garden to the rear is beautifully landscaped and has expansive views of the castle and coast and the property also has a basement and a small attached stone barn with the potential to develop subject to necessary planning.

The property benefits from double glazing throughout with oil fired central heating.

Bronallt has an historical past, being originally one of two pubs side by side on this small side street. Originally the White Horse Inn it stood next to "The Harp" and is mentioned in Lewis Lloyds Book of Harlech and dates back to at least 1890. It is also illustrated in an historical vignette of White Horse Inns. The property is now a beautiful and characterful home and "The Harp" next door has been renamed "Harlech House" and has remained a Hotel/Public House.
