Maes Mor

Harlech || LL46 2SB

This delightful seaside two bedroom detached house located in the sought after hamlet of Llandanwg offers a unique opportunity to embrace coastal living.

With uninterrupted sea views, Maes Mor is a true gem for those seeking tranquility and natural beauty coupled with the best of beach life that Gwynedd has to offer. The award-winning beach is just a short five-minute stroll away, where you can indulge in the sun, sand, and surf, complemented by the beach café for refreshments. Just a mere five-minute stroll from an award-winning beach, this property boasts uninterrupted sea views and gentle sound of waves that can be enjoyed from both the first-floor balcony and the garden to the rear.

Freshly painted in white throughout, the home is light and bright, creating an inviting atmosphere. The large kitchen diner with patio doors to the garden is ideal for family meals and entertaining, while the utility/store room adds practicality to everyday living. Double glazing ensures warmth and tranquillity.

With flexible accommodation, there is a cloakroom to the ground floor and family bathroom on the first. The two double bedrooms have views, the principal with sea views and balcony, the other looking across to the hills.

This property is situated in a sought-after location, where you can witness stunning sunsets and, on occasion, even spot dolphins playing in the sea. With no onward chain, this home is ready for you to move in and start enjoying the coastal lifestyle immediately. Additionally, access to transport links makes it convenient for commuting or exploring the beautiful surrounding areas.

In need of some cosmetic upgrading, it is a blank canvas waiting for new owners to put their own stamp on and create a wonderful coastal home.

This house in Llandanwg is a rare find that promises a serene and picturesque living experience by the sea. Don't miss the opportunity to make this coastal gem your own.

Llandanwg and its Surrounds

Llandanwg between Barmouth and Harlech, is famous for its beautiful beach and medieval church in the dunes which stands just a stone's throw from the sea. The beach is sheltered from strong winds, making it a perfect place for relaxation. It's popular with fishermen – the local catch includes dogfish, bass, flatfish and mackerel. It has its own beachside cafe and Pensam Harbour is nearby. The Welsh Coastal path and other scenic walks are on the doorstep. It has a railway station served by the Cambrian Coastline railway which offers links to local towns, the Midlands and beyond. It's close to the castle town of Harlech, a popular resort offering a range of facilities including shops, schools, swimming baths, petrol station and the Royal St David's Golf Club.
