Eisingrug and Talsarnau

Tyn Twll is located in the charming hamlet of Eisingrug with characterful properties and central mill pond and in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park. Sandy beaches are in close proximity.

Within easy walking distance is the newly reopened 14th century, Maes-y-Neuadd hotel with its restaurant and bar. (previously the manor house)

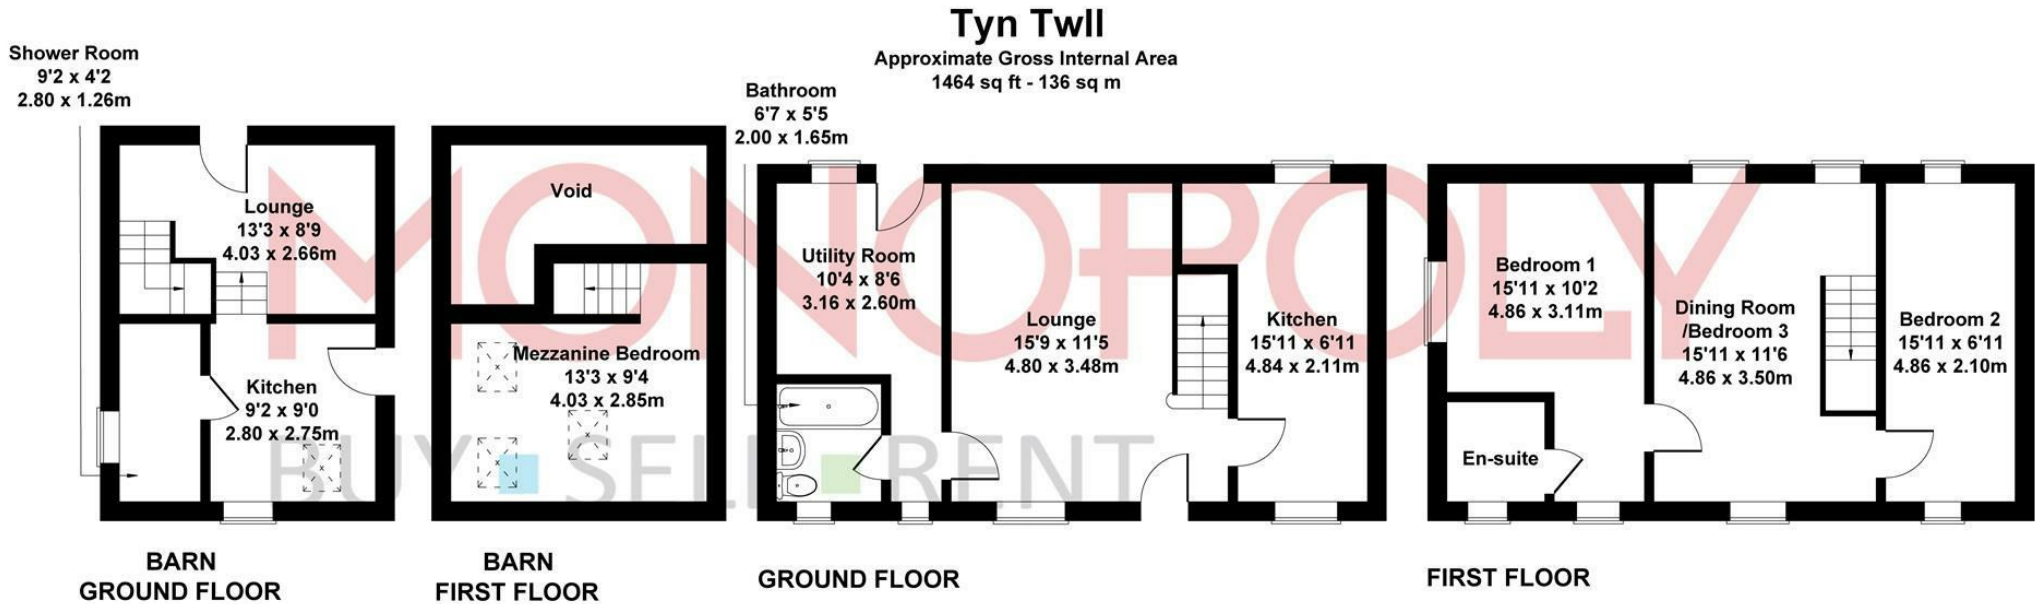

The neighbouring village of Talsarnau is home to the popular 'Ship Aground' public house and a primary school. it also has a community playground and carpark. It is situated on the A496 coastal road between Porthmadog and Harlech, close to both the hamlets of Eisingrug and Llandecwyn. It is just 1.5 miles from the beautiful Afon Glaslyn estuary and only three miles from the historic castle town of Harlech and close to Porthmadog and all its facilities. Fantastic walking is on the doorstep with the Welsh Coastal Path passing close by, but for the more adventurous it is in close proximity to Blaenau Ffestiniog where you can enjoy all the activities at Llechwedd slate caverns, Zip World Titan (the largest zip zone in Europe), Zip World Caverns and Bounce Below (deep mine zip wires and the largest underground system of trampolines in the world!). For something a little less energetic, the well-known Ffestiniog narrow gauge steam railway is close by and the peaceful and tranquil beach at Harlech, just 3 miles away is one of the best in North Wales and you can often walk for miles along it without meeting a soul.
