Barmouth | LL42 1AT

In the heart of the charming town of Barmouth, this attractive three-storey mid-row traditional stone cottage on Water Street offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a characterful home or a lucrative investment. Located just off the bustling high street, this property enjoys a tranquil backwater setting while remaining mere minutes from the beach and local amenities.

The cottage boasts a spacious ground floor kitchen/diner, featuring exposed stone walling that adds to its rustic charm. The room is further enhanced by a feature fireplace and granite worktops, making it an ideal space for both cooking and entertaining. Ascending to the first floor, you will find a cosy lounge, complete with a spiral staircase and a marble fire surround, perfect for relaxing evenings.

The property includes two large attic rooms previously used as bedrooms but due to the staircase width and lack of protected escape route, the dwelling must revert back to a single bedroom property to comply with building regulations and a small amount of work is required to achieve this.

Further information on the outstanding work are included in the details below.

Please note that this property may be a cash-only purchase due to the outstanding work required for building regulations, so it is advisable to consult with your mortgage provider. Sold as seen, the contents are included in sale.

With no onward chain and a history of second home usage and holiday rental this cottage is perfect for those seeking a home or an investment opportunity in a picturesque coastal location. Don't miss your chance to own a piece of Barmouth's charm.

Barmouth and it Surrounds

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia

National Park. There is a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.

Article 4

The property is currently classed as a second home and also has a history of holiday letting. Buyers are advised to make their own enquiries on status before purchase. Cyngor Gwynedd has introduced an Article 4 Direction to manage the use of houses as second homes and holiday accommodation in the Gwynedd Local Planning Authority Area. A Confirmation Notice has been served and the change came into force from 1 September 2024.

From this date, planning permission will be required before changing the use of a property into a second home, short-term holiday let or specific mixed use.

Cyngor Gwynedd has served an Article 4 Direction 'Notice' for the Gwynedd Local Planning Authority area (namely the area of Gwynedd located outside Eryri National Park).

The purpose of the Article 4 Direction is to revoke the right to change of use without planning consent, for the following use:

Change of use of a main residence (use class C3) into a second home (use class C5) or short-term holiday let (use class C6) and specific mixed uses;
Change of use of a second home (use class C5) to a short-term holiday let (use class C6) and specific mixed uses;
Change of use from a short-term holiday let (use class C6) to a second home (use class C5) and specific mixed uses.
