Gilfach Goch Farmstead

Llanbedr | Merionethshire | LL45 2LT

A unique opportunity to purchase a Welsh Farmstead with approximately 3 acres in all comprising of :

- * A fine example of an early Welsh 17th Century Grade II listed detached "Gilfach Goch Farmhouse"
- * Detached 4 bedroom barn conversion, "Ty GennoI" (including annex "Beudy Bach") currently providing holiday rental income
- * Detached stone barn
- * A number of stone outbuildings
- * 3 acres of gardens, orchard , natural bog garden and fields

The farmstead is situated in an idyllic location in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park and is completely private and secluded with wonderful sea and rural views yet within easy reach of the popular village of Llanbedr and the nearby beaches and mountains.

It is approached via a 1/2 mile tarmac shared private driveway through pasture and which enjoys magnificent coastal views across the Llyn Peninsula. The driveway leads to a private gated car park and further gravel driveway to the detached barn and courtyard in front of Ty Gwennol Barn and Gilfach Goch Farmhouse.

Both properties have been fully and sympathetically modernised whilst retaining a wealth of original features including flagged floors, exposed beams and stone work, and lancet windows plus multi fuel stoves in the farmhouse. There are individual oil fired central heating systems with underfloor heating to both properties and full double glazing. The attention to detail and quality of internal finishing is second to none.

The farmstead offers very flexible accommodation which could be used simply as a stunning family residence or as a commercial venture with income available from the barn.

Llanbedr and its Surrounds

The farmstead is located in an elevated position just outside the pretty village of Llanbedr which quietly nestles in ancient woodland between The Rhinogs, part of the Snowdonia Mountains, and the stunning golden beaches of the North Wales coastline. Situated next to the beautiful River Artro, and boasting a mild climate due to its unusual positioning behind the high dunes of a nature reserve, this charming village has an exciting array of wildlife and birds, handy local shops, bike hire and mountain walks on your doorstep, as well as three excellent pubs. The small town of Harlech is just 3 miles away and boasts the World Heritage Site of Harlech Castle, a majestic 13th century stronghold, the most impressive of all those built in North Wales by Edward I. Popular with golfers due to its famous Royal St. David's course, Harlech also boasts an excellent variety of amenities including some good quality restaurants and the most magnificent six-mile long sandy beach, perfect for wonderful walks and family fun. Nearby Barmouth offers the amazing Panorama Walk along the beautiful Mawddach Estuary, providing breathtaking vistas, which were described by John Ruskin as "the most sublime view in Europe" and also a harbour from which you can catch a ferry to Fairbourne for a ride on the miniature railway, or a boat trip out to sea to try mackerel fishing. With the delights of Snowdonia National Park and beautiful Cardigan Bay to discover, this is a fantastic holiday location at any time of the year.
