

NORTH AUDLEY STREET

MAYFAIR W1K

A beautifully finished lateral apartment occupying the entire floor of a distinguished period building in the heart of Mayfair

Positioned on one level within a Victorian mansion block on North Audley Street, this apartment offers scale, beautiful aspect, character, and privacy in a sought-after Mayfair address moments from Grosvenor Square.

A grand entrance hall leads into an open-plan living and dining room with solid wooden floors, three-metre ceilings, panelled walls, and a large handmade fireplace. The fully fitted large dine-in Smallbone kitchen provides extensive storage, an impressive stove, and generous natural light.

Three large en-suite bedrooms complete the accommodation, having been converted from five bedrooms originally. Each bedroom occupies a different corner of the apartment, giving privacy to each. The principal bedroom suite comprises its own separate living area, a large double bedroom, and a separate walk-in closet, whilst the second bedroom enjoys leafy views across the mature gardens onto Lees Place and the third bedroom enjoys impressive views onto the front.

All the windows in the apartment are double-glazed, meaning there is no noise pollution from the outside into the apartment. The grand entrance hall sets an immediate sense of scale and elegance, where there is another handmade fireplace at the entrance, and the room leads directly to the open-plan reception. High ceilings, solid wooden floors, and large sash windows across the whole width of the building create a central space filled with natural light framed by panelled walls and the fireplace.

The dine-in kitchen offers plentiful built-in storage, an impressive stove, and strong natural light. Three en-suite bedrooms sit separately from the living area. There is also a guest WC supporting the layout. All toilets are Japanese Toto design.
