Truly contemporary, this three bedroom apartment has a spectacular light, open-plan, top-floor living and entertaining space on the fourth floor, with separate bedroom accommodation on the third floor. On both floors, there are ultra-large, 35 ft (10.7 m) wide, south-facing roof terraces offering long views of Westminster.

The interior of the apartment has been designed by world-renowned designer Rose Uniacke, who applies an accomplished and thoughtful contemporary interior style to enhance the quintessentially classical architecture.

Situated directly opposite Buckingham Palace, The Buckingham apartment sits at the very heart of London's most distinguished address, Buckingham Palace. St James Park offers an array of high end boutiques, restaurants and cafes close by. Additionally, Victoria Station and St James Park are just a short walk away offering convenient access to the wider city.
