SITUATION

Rievaulx Village 2 miles, Sutton Bank 2 miles, Helmsley 5 miles, Thirsk 8 miles, Teesside 28 miles, York 29 miles (all distances are approximate).

Old Rectory Farm is attractively situated towards the southern end of the popular small rural village of Scawton within the picturesque North York Moors National Park. Scawton is a relatively short distance from the popular and thriving market towns of Thirsk and Helmsley. The property is well placed in relation to the A19, on the edge of Thirsk.

DESCRIPTION

Old Rectory Farm comprises a residential smallholding extending to 0.83 acres approximately.

The Grade II Listed traditional three bedroomed farmhouse requires completely modernising. It is constructed of stone with a part pan tile and slate roof.

It is complemented externally by pleasant gardens, a rear yard and a range of traditional farm buildings and a small grass paddock. The whole of the property is shown edged red on the attached plan.

ACCOMMODATION

The layout of the accommodation in the farmhouse is shown on the attached floor layout plan.

OUTSIDE

There is a small range of traditional farm buildings which are situated immediately to the rear of the farmhouse. These comprise:-

Two traditional single storey detached stone loose boxes with asbestos roofs. A pre-fabricated detached concrete panel building with an asbestos roof. A two bay timber pole barn with lean-to's on either side with corrugated iron roofs and side cladding. There is also a small grass paddock.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Please note some of the farm buildings are in a semi-derelict dangerous condition. We would advise you not to enter these buildings.
