SITUATION

Hawes Market Place 2 minutes walk. Sedburgh 15 miles. Leyburn 16 miles. Ingleton 17 miles. Kendal 26 miles. Northallerton 35 miles. Main Railway Line at Garsdale 7 miles.

The property is situated in a quiet and beautiful location situated within 2 minutes walk of Hawes.

Hawes is a popular and thriving market town within the Yorkshire Dales National Park. The town benefits from a good range of independent shops, cafes, pubs and amenities including the famous Wensleydale Creamery.

DESCRIPTION

4 Brandymires comprises a deceptively spacious stone-built house located within a short distance from the centre of Hawes. The property has been well maintained yet would require some updating in areas. It offers spacious accommodation throughout.

The property is entered via a useful porch, which leads through to the living room and kitchen. The kitchen features a range of units together with integrated appliances such as an oven and hob, alongside a freestanding fridge freezer. The living room features alcove shelving and an open fire.

The dining room is flooded with natural light courtesy of the large south facing bay window which is complemented with its fantastic views across upper Wensleydale.

The entrance hall, which allows access to the front garden, also features a useful understairs cupboard, which is equipped with a tap and plumbing for a washing machine.

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms, two of which benefit from the views of the open countryside and a family bathroom which comprises of a wash basin, bath, W.C and airing cupboard.

Externally, the property is complemented by a two storey stone built garage, which has the benefit of water and power. There is also a stone built log store adjacent to the rear of the property and parking for one vehicle.

To the front of the property is a south facing garden, which overlooks the spectacular scenery of the Yorkshire Dales. This can be accessed via a shared path.

4 Brandymires would make an excellent family home and is immediately available, chain free.
