Bodmin Moor lies to the south of the property offering excellent walking and outdoor pursuits.

DESCRIPTION A most impressive link-detached historic stone and granite farmhouse, which has been considerably updated by the current vendor whilst retaining many original period features along with a recently renovated 1 bed detached cottage. Both properties are presented in excellent decorative order throughout. The farmhouse was built in the 1870s, together with a range of stone and slate outbuildings offering considerable potential (subject to the necessary planning permissions).

The accommodation is illustrated on the floorplan and briefly comprises: front door opening into the dining room with attractive flagstone floors, alcove window to the front aspect and fireplace. A door opens into an inner vestibule with stairs to the first floor, understairs storage cupboard and doors into the kitchen and study, which is dual aspect with slate floor. From the dining room door into the lounge, which also has a flagstone floor, window to the front aspect and a granite fireplace with wood burner set on a granite hearth.

The recently refitted kitchen has a range of base units with laminated work surfaces, inset stainless steel sink with mixer taps and 4-ring induction hob with electric oven beneath. Original chimney breast housing the oil-fired Rayburn for hot water. Flagstone floors, window seat, glazed door to the rear garden and door into a cloakroom with low flush WC. The utility room has matching units, sink, space and plumbing for washing machine, base-level fridge/freezer and base-level oil boiler.

The first floor is approached via switchback stairs with original stained glass window on the half landing. From the main landing doors lead to the bedrooms; three enjoy stunning views over farmland to Caradon Hill and Bodmin Moor. The fourth bedroom has views to the rear aspect. There is a store cupboard/dressing room and shower room comprising walk-in shower cubicle with electric shower, low flush WC, vanity wash hand basin and airing cupboard.

WOODMAN'S COTTAGE The charming former woodman's cottage is ancillary accommodation to the main dwelling. It has been completely renovated by the current vendor and comprises an open plan lounge/kitchen with inglenook fireplace with original cloam oven and houses a multi-fuel burner. The kitchen area has a range of base-level units with sink and induction hob with electric oven under. To the first floor is a double bedroom with views to Bodmin Moor and spacious en-suite with low flush WC, wash hand basin and corner shower cubicle.

Attached to the cottage is a wood store, with power and light connected.

OUTSIDE To the front is a useful lay-by providing off-road parking for one vehicle and access through a side gate to the garden. There is a pretty front walled garden with a path to the front door. The gardens lie mainly to the side of the property with well-defined boundaries. A pathway leads to a concrete yard providing parking for several vehicles. There is a further garden to the rear with wall and hedge boundaries and mature shrubs.

OUTBUILDINGS A range of most useful outbuildings including two traditional barns, one two-storey and one single storey constructed of stone and granite.
