CANDLEMAS COTTAGE, 8 THE BOROUGH, DOWNTON, SALISBURY SP5 3ND

PRICE GUIDE: £445,000

Located within the highly desirable Wiltshire village of Downton is Candlemas Cottage, a lovely “eye catching” Grade II listed period cottage of excellent proportions with a wealth of glorious features. Tucked away in a secluded corner of The Borough and, with a wonderful south facing garden, Candlemas Cottage is a “must View” for any discerning buyer in search of a characterful home.

Of seventeenth century origins, Candlemas Cottage has been lovingly cared for by the current and previous owners who have clearly demonstrated a high degree of sensitivity to the period and charm of the property and have clearly maintained the cottage to a high standard which will be evident to all who view.

The cottage was sympathetically extended in 2009/2010 with a double storey rear extension resulting in the now lovely light and airy double aspect farmhouse kitchen and an additional first floor bedroom.

The cottage is truly deceptive in appearance with surprisingly spacious accommodation comprising of a cosy sitting room with a fine inglenook fireplace and stable door leading out to the garden, a superb kitchen, utility room, ground floor cloakroom, three excellent size bedrooms and a refitted family bathroom. There are a wealth of period features including some stone mullioned windows, numerous exposed structural beams and timbers, terracotta tiles flooring and internal doors. Majority rethatching works were completed during 2023 along with new eaves, re-ridging, redressing and netting.

A particular feature of this lovely period home is the wonderful south facing cottage garden with an abundance of flower beds and borders, climbing foliage and mature shrubs all of which is arranged around a beautifully maintained lawn. There is also a large sunny seating area, productive vegetable garden, greenhouse and large garden shed. The cottage also has major advantage of having a private side gated pedestrian access. Parking is available within the Borough.

LOCATION: Downton is a village and civil parish on the River Avon in southern Wiltshire, about 6 miles southeast of the city of Salisbury and just outside the New Forest National Park. Downton offers a good range of local amenities, including local shops, cafe, a doctors' surgery, sports centre, public houses and churches of all denominations, primary school and The Trafalgar School. Downton is in the catchment area for the two grammar schools in Salisbury and is on a direct bus route to The Burgate School and Sixth Form Centre in Fordingbridge. The cathedral city of Salisbury has an excellent range of social, cultural and leisure amenities with extensive shopping facilities, restaurants and the twice weekly Charter market. The theatre, arts centre and cinema are all located in the city centre. The A338 accesses Bournemouth, the B3078 crosses the New Forest to provide a link to the M27 and Southampton.
