Property Overview

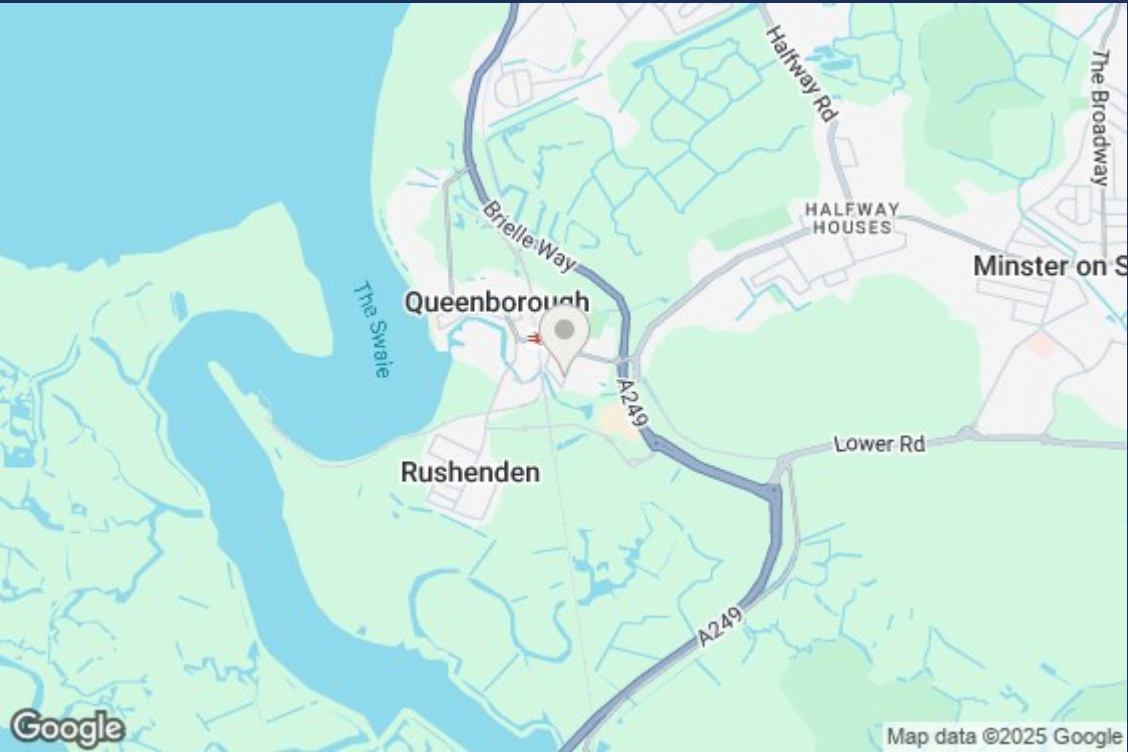

As you enter, the hallway leads to a bright and welcoming through-lounge, with an attractive arched opening to the dining area, perfect for both relaxing evenings and entertaining. Double doors from the dining room open into the rear garden, allowing natural light to flow through and extending the living space in warmer months.

To the rear, the home boasts a modern kitchen with a well-planned layout, plus a second access to the garden for added convenience. Off the kitchen, you'll find the family bathroom, fitted with a clean and contemporary three-piece suite.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms and a third single room. The third bedroom currently includes fitted wardrobes along one wall, which limits its width (6'8"), though it could comfortably accommodate a double bed if adjusted. All rooms are well-proportioned and neutrally finished, ready for personal touches.

While the property offers on-street parking, it more than makes up for it with generous living space, garden access, and a location close to local schools, shops, and Queenborough station.

This is a home with excellent potential—perfect for first-time buyers, young families, or anyone looking to step onto the property ladder in a well-connected and established neighbourhood.

About The Area

Located in the historic coastal town of Queenborough, 47 Stanley Avenue enjoys a convenient setting just 0.16 miles from Queenborough Railway Station, offering direct links to Sittingbourne and connections to London. Families benefit from being just a short 0.18-mile walk to Queenborough School & Nursery, while shopping needs are easily met at Neats Court Retail Park, only 0.34 miles away. Local healthcare is also close at hand, with Vel Surgery under 0.6 miles away and Sheppey Community Hospital approximately 1.8 miles from the property. With a scenic harbour, traditional pubs, and walking routes along the waterfront, Queenborough blends coastal charm with modern convenience—making it a fantastic location for first-time buyers and families looking for value and lifestyle.
